

ART LECTURE

Thurs March 13th. 4.15
p.m.
King's School

This is a free lecture by Professor Bronwen Wilson, Head of the School of Art History and World Art Studies at the world famous Sainsbury Institute, the University of East Anglia. Her career has seen her working with the University of Cambridge and the Courtauld Institute amongst many other institutions. It is timed to coincide with the Art exam units at AS and A2 level and will centre on the Human Figure in the Renaissance and beyond. You and your students are very welcome to attend, but as we have both a larger or a smaller intimate venue available then I would appreciate numbers by the beginning of February. Please email me and then I can pass on further details. Best wishes

Wayne Spilsbury, Head of Art. King's Bruton
